YROW Committee

Dear Vice Presidents of CIOR,

1. On behalf of the CIOR Presidency and as the Chairman of the Young Reserve Officers (YRO) Committee I am writing to request that all CIOR member countries, especially our members in the eastern part of Europe, to send participants for the announced YROW seminar in April 2010. The YRO Committee is very glad that Czech Republic has stood forward to host the Young Reserve Officers Seminar. Invitation from Czech Republic attached. The Seminar offers the unique opportunity for CIOR to bring to your nation a multinational team which seeks to promote and educate young officers on the work of NATO and the role that Reserve Officers now play within the modern NATO structure. The seminar is primarily focused towards fostering closer relations with new NATO members and promoting discussion across a broad range of challenging topics.
2. The seminar will focus on deployment, trying to focus on the pros and cons going abroad from the personal side and the handling of the reserves in the national deployment systems. Aim of the seminar is to discuss what can be done in order to increase the number of reserves going on NATO operations from NATO and national MOD. Deliverable will be a briefing paper relative to the subject of the seminar, which will be forwarded to the CIOR presidency for further evaluation.
3. I am pleased to have appointed Captain Ann-Christina H. Salquist from Denmark as the Responsible Officer within my committee for the delivery of the YRO Seminar in coordination with Staff sergeant Jaroslav Hajezek from the Czech Republic. Please feel free to contact Captain Salquist or Staff sergeant Jaroslav Hajezek directly with any questions or further requests for information. Contact details for both are attached in the Seminar outline.
4. I kindly ask you to encourage your nations Junior Officers to participate in this seminar and learn more about the work of CIOR and YROW.

Yours Sincerely,

[Signed on Original]

Adam Slonecki
Lieutenant, Royal Naval Reserve (UK)
Chairman, YROW Committee
